RESERVATION NEWS
and Fort Duchesne Items

by Leora Weaver

RESOLUTION APPROVED FOR INCORPORATION

The Affiliated Ute Citizens at their meeting November 1, passed a resolution to accept the Articles of Incorporation for the Distributive Corporation as called for by a plan set up under the provisions of Public Law 671. This corporation will handle all income for the group.

It was also agreed to name the First Security Bank as receiving agent. Wherever possible, management affairs will be turned over to the bank, including those of the Cattle and Sheep Corporations.

Officers were selected to act and sign for the group until the next general meeting when permanent officers will be elected.

—RN—

SPORTS NOTES

Tom Chapoose won the cash award sponsored by the Ute Tribe for being registered and bringing in the deer with the largest spread of horns. The spread measured 28½ inches.

The Ute Fish and Game Department announces that Full-bloods and Mixed-bloods shall be able to hunt pheasant on either's land without a special license. The charge for non-members will be $1.50, and permits may be purchased at nearly all the stores and also from all game wardens.

Notice is hereby given that an Antelope hunt will be open to full-blood members from November 14 to November 18 in the following areas: Chapeeta Grove and south of White River. Members interested in hunting for antelope must submit their names to the Fish and Game Office no later than November 12 at 5:00 p.m. Ten antelope of either sex will be released for this hunt. In the event that more than 10 applications are received a drawing will be held.

—RN—

Bob Murdock, Tribal Farm Manager, announces that a cow clinic was to be held at the farm of Richard Coltharp in Neola at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday. Professor Henderson discussed cow culling, winter supplemental feeding and testing for pregnancy. A demonstration was also given on the use of chemicals—Trolene and Co-Ral—in the control of cattle lice, grubs and other internal parasites.

—RN—

LITTLE LEAGUE FOOTBALL

The game between the Fort Duchesne and Randlett teams Saturday was very exciting. First score of the game came in the third quarter when Dan Weaver made the first touchdown for Fort Duchesne. In the fourth quarter, Larry McCook threw a pass to Kent Denver who went over for the second TD, and the final score for the first game was 13-0 in favor of Fort Duchesne. Fort Duchesne received three penalties and Randlett one.

Following are the players on the Fort Duchesne team: Captain Kent Denver, Randy Mccook, Junior Lopez, Junior Sixkiller, Larry McCook, Dan Weaver, Orvid McCook, Rodney Unca Sam and Franklin Myore. Members of the Randlett team are as follows: Captain Arthur Patterson, Reed Sibilo, Leon Navanick, Bobby Serowop, Jimmie Cesspooch, Dale Shavaneaux, Delbert Cesspooch, Myron Accuteroop and James McCook.

There will be another official game next Saturday at 10:00 a.m. between Randlett and Whiterocks at Fort Duchesne.

—RN—

Francis McKinley returned home from the hospital in Salt Lake City, but will have to wear a cast for nearly two weeks.

—RN—

Mrs. Norma Denver reports that the Halloween parties at Randlett and Whiterocks were well attended. Approximately 350 attended the party at Randlett, and about 400 were present at Whiterocks.

—RN—

SOCIAL NEWS

The Masquerade Ball held at the Fort Duchesne Woman's Club hall was reported very successful. The hall was decorated with appropriate colors, complete with skeletons, black cats and pumpkins. Excellent music was furnished by the Art Smith Band.

More than fifty people came masked and in costume. Mrs. Sarah Hackford won first prize for the women, while Lynn Nebeker won first for the men. Other outstanding costumes deserving honorable mention were worn by Violet Perriette,, Gib Harris and Llewellyn Kingsley.

Refreshments were served to approximately 70 people. Hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Weilang and Mr. and Mrs. Albert LaRose.

WEDDING RECEPTION

A wedding reception for Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Majado, nee Miss Judy Sixkiller, was held Saturday evening at the Fort Duchesne Woman's Club hall, sponsored by the bride's family.

The hall was decorated with fall leaves and flowers. The new bride was lovely in her white lace and net wedding dress.

Mrs. Mary LaRose, Mrs. Norma Denver, Mrs. Lulu Murdock and Mrs. Sarah Hackford presided at the buffet table. Dancing was enjoyed to the music of Art Smith's band.

Mrs. Hazel Davis entertained the Fort Duchesne Card Club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments were served to three tables. Prizes were won by Mrs. Mary LaRose, Mrs. LaVonne Saunders and Mrs. Leora Weaver. A farewell gift was presented to Mrs. Juanita Williams. Mrs. Allan Pike was welcomed as a new member.

ATTENDS MEETING

Mrs. Lon Logan, president of the Utah Federation of Women's Clubs, attended a meeting at the State Capitol Thursday afternoon on a call from Gov. George D. Clyde for the purpose of considering the establishment of a permanent organization for community development in Utah.

Included in the group present were representatives from the University of Utah, Utah State University and Brigham Young University, together with others from the Utah Municipal League, Industrial and Employment Commission and the Utah Tourist and Publicity Council.

Mrs. Logan also participated recently in the October meeting of the Veterans Administration Volunteer Service at the Fort Douglas Hospital in Salt Lake City. Utah Federation clubwomen have, for many years, worked in close contact with the hospitalized veterans, making donations for purchase of therapeutic equipment, ward furnishings and giving parties for their entertainment.

Last year the Fort Duchesne Woman's Club held a benefit card party, and the proceeds were used for the purchase of draperies in one of the wards at Ft. Douglas. Personal service in the hospital is being stressed at the present.

DOCTOR ENTERTAINS

Dr. Edward Maglietta entertained at his home Saturday evening with an Italian dinner, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Williams. Dr. Maglietta is not only famous for his culinary abilities, but for his ability to entertain as an accomplished pianist. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Kingsley, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Weilang and Mrs. O. K. Weaver.

—RN—

Darrell Fleming and O. K. Weaver left Saturday morning on an official business trip to the Bureau of Indian Affairs Area Office in Phoenix, Ariz. They were accompanied by Mrs. Fleming and Clyde W. Pensoneau of Washington, D. C. Mr. Pensoneau began his career in the Indian Service at Fort Duchesne and will be remembered by his many friends and acquaintances.

—RN—

Lowell Coleman, Agency Social Worker, attended a two-day conference of Social Welfare in Salt Lake City last Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Coleman and children accompanied him and visited Mrs. Coleman's sister, Mrs. Bruce Wasden of Salt Lake City.

—RN—

FIRST CONCERT

The first concert of the season of the Uintah Community Concert Association was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Lon A. Logan Friday evening in Vernal at which Miss Ewan Harbrecht, gifted lyric soprano, presented a delightful performance. Following the concert, they joined in an informal supper gathering at the Bonfire Room, honoring Miss Harbrecht and her accompanist who were the guests of the Association Board of which Mrs. Logan is a member.

—RN—

P-TA COUNCIL MEETING ATTENDED Y PARENTS

Ten parents of Fort Duchesne attended the General District PTA Council meeting held in conjunction with the meeting of the Russell Todd School PTA at the Todd School on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Darlene Evans, Council president, presided, and Mrs. Erva Bowden, program chairman, presented the program. Two candidates for the State Legislature, Lee Sowards and Ralph Preece, took part in a discussion, and Alvin Bowden, member of the school board, also presented some brief remarks.

This was followed by a panel discussion on mental health, with John C. Haws, Superintendent of Schools, acting as chairman. Dr. Herb Fowler, Bruce Goats, Wayne Holland and Milton Thackery, all of the University of Utah, gave very valuable information on the Mental Health Clinic which is being set up in Uintah County.

Mrs. Theron Leavitt represented the teachers on the panel and Mrs. O. K. Weaver the parents. Approximately 125 people from all over the district attended this meeting.

After the general meeting the Todd PTA president, T. Golden Collins, conducted a short business meeting. Principal Call estimated that there was a record attendance of approximately 70 members.